

Secondary School Examination – 2017(Annual)

ENGLISH

Time: 03 Hrs, 15 minutes

[Full Marks: 100]

SECTION-A

1. Read the passage carefully and answer the question below in your words. 4x3=12

Once a poor woman came to Buddha. She implored him to give her any medicine to restore her dead son to life. The great teacher decided to pacify her by making her feel the hard realities of life. He asked her to bring handful of mustard seed from any house where death has never entered. At one time the sorrowful mother went from door to door for seeds. At one place a girl said, 'I have lost my father'. At another place a man said, 'My young son passed away last night'. The woman returned with a heavy heart to Buddha after hearing similar tales of sorrow from every house. Buddha, the great teacher consoled her, 'My daughter', one who is born is sure to die. So you must stop shedding tears and perform the last rite of your son.

Questions:

- (i) Why did the woman go to Buddha?
- (ii) What did Buddha ask her to do at the end?
- (iii) What did he hear in every house?
- (iv) How did Buddha console the woman?

Solution 1:

- (i) The woman went to Buddha to take the medicine to restore her dead son.
- (ii) At the end Buddha asked her to bring handful of mustard seed from any house where death has never entered.
- (iii) He heard sorrow from every house.
- (iv) At last Buddha consoled the woman, "One who is born is sure to die".

Question 2: Read the passage carefully and answer the question below in your words.

4x2=8

One day two people saw two women named Kamla and Leela quarrelling over a baby. The people took the woman and the baby to the court of two wise kings, Vikram. Kamla told the king that the baby was hers. Leela also claimed the baby as her own. King Vikram patiently listened to the two women, thought over the matter for two minutes and then said to one of his officers, 'Fetch me a sword'. The officers brought him a sword and the king said,

Divide the baby into two and give half to the one and half to the. At this Kamla bitterly to cry and said, "Oh! My lord please don't kill the child. Let Leela Have it. "But Leela said, It shall me neither mine nor hers, Divide it, King Vikram pointing the Kamla said, "Give her the child, she is the mother of it", and ordered Leela to be sent to prison.

Questions

- (i) Why were the two woman quarrelling?
- (ii) Who was Vikram?
- (iii) Why did kamla begin bitterly to cry?
- (iv) What did Leela say?

Solution 2:

- (i) The two woman quarrelling fireclay over a baby.
- (ii) Vikram was the king of the court.
- (iii) Kamla begin to cry bitterly because the king was going to divide the baby.
- (iv) Leela said the real mother of the baby is Kamla.

SECTION-B

Question 3: Write a letter to your younger brought living in patna about the effects of noise pollution due to congested traffic.

OR

Write an application to your headmaster to grant you full free student's ship.

8

Solution 3:

Place: Madanpur

Date: 25.05.2019

Dear Raju,

I come to know your friend that Patna is very crowded city today. Roads and lands are congested. Patna is facing on number of problems. Noise pollution is also the big problem of her. Different types of vehicles create different sounds. I want to give you some advice about ill-effects of noise pollution. You should keep yourself safe pollution because it will horn not only your ears but also the mind. These annoying sounds cause many disease also. It is very difficult to concentrate on study. So you do not move in a crowded on study. So you do not move in a crowded place.

Yours Elder Brother

Aman

OR

To,
The principal
B.N High School,
Jhanjharpur
Through: The class teacher, Class-X (A)
Sir,

I beg to say that I am very poor student of your school. My father is poor farmer. He has to maintain a big family. We are four brothers. It is just beyond my father's income to spend anything on my education. My result is very satisfactory. I need your kind help to continue my study.

I therefore, request you to grant me full free studentship. Only then I may be able to continue my studies.

For this act of your kindness, I shall ever be grateful.

You're obediently

Anmol

Class- X (A), Roll no. 10

Question 4: Write a paragraph on any one of the following in about 80 words. 1x4=4

- (i) Teachers day
- (ii) Holy
- (iii) Your Village
- (iv) A life of beggar

Solution 4:

(i) Teachers Day:-

"Teacher's day in India is celebrated every year on 5th September to the honour the contribution of the teacher in our study. Society and country. There is the great reason behind celebrating the teacher's day on 5th of September. 5th September is the birth anniversary of the great person named Dr Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan. He was the highly devoted toward education and well known as the scholar, diplomat, president of India and most importantly of a teacher.

Once when he became the India president in 1962. Some students requested him to allow them to celebrate his birthday on 5th September. He said that instead on celebrating 5th September as my birthday personally, why not, it is celebrated as the teacher's day as my dedication towards the teaching profession. After his statement, 5th of September has been started celebrating as a teachers day all over the India.

(ii) Holy:-

India is the land of festivals. We celebrate our festivals with great enthusiasm. The festivals makes us forget our cares and anxieties. They brake of Monotony of our everyday life. They provide great joy and fun. We celebrate the different festivals on the different times. Holi si perhaps the happiest festival of Hindus. It is a spring festival. It is celebrated on the firast day of Chaitra. It marks the beginning of the season. The beauty of nature makes the festivals colourful. The lovely flowers with the dazzling colours and the sweet songs of the cuckoo. Provide the charming background of Holi.

The holi celebrations are begin of the last day of phalgun. People collect sticks and straws lying in streets at a place. At night they gather at the place and set fire og huge sticks and straws. They sing a song to the accompaniment of drums. They are mad with joy.

(iii) Your village

I lived in the village of Madanpur in the districts of Madhubani. It is the big village of consists 200 families. My village is self contained. Its habitants do not have to go to towns daily requirements. Besides shops of grains, groceries, cloths and ornaments, it is also got blacksmith, carpenters, and cobblers, weavers and also a Vaidya and doctor. The weavers of Madanpur are well-Known. They do bricks and handloom cloths. There are four primary schools, one high school, and a primary library in the village. The library has been opened by the young men of the village. Its expenses are met from the fund raised by subscription. There is also society name Bal krira Samaj. Under its auspices the young boy of the village meet and play kabbaddi another games. They also discuss important topics of the day. The village has got low lands which is very good for paddy crops. The land is very fertile, unless there is complete doubts, the yield is always good. That is all about my village.

(iv) A life of beggar:-

Beggars have not a respectable status in our society. They can be seen all the public places. Whether we go to the Railway station and to go the bus stops, to a temple, a mosque or a church, to go the burning ghat, or to a bathing ghat, we are sure to a pestered by beggars. They throng specially at religious places. Near separates places and ghats. They can be seen lining up in the rows. Some will be found rolling on the earth, some sitting, some recoiling and some standing in various postures. Even at our homes, we are not free from these beggars. A number of them knocks on our doors daily. Some of them are really obstinate and they would not move unless we give them something. Beginning in India has much support from Hindu religion. The Hindus look upon the giving of alms as sacred and religious acts. They give alms on all festive occasions, at birth and death, during illness in the family, and even on the occasions of performing religious rites something is given as alms.

Question 5: You are lost your wrist watch playing cricket in the playground. Write a notice in about 80 words regarding the lost watch. Put the notice in a box.

OR

You received a prize for writing story. Prepare a speech to be delivered while accepting the prize.

8

Solution 5:

B.N High school, Jhanjharpur

NOTICE

My wrist watch has been lost while playing cricket in the playground. The finder is requested to return the same undersigned.

OR

Honourable headmaster, respected teacher and dear friends. I stand before you here to accept the prize for writing story. I feel that it is our teachers and friends who enable me to get the success. I have learnt the art of writing stories from my teachers who always guided me and encouraged me to participate in the programme. I am proud to getting this award. It is also the matter of pride for our school. I gladly accept the prize in the name of my teachers and guardians because it is the result of their affection. The memory of this day is still fresh in my mind.

Thanks all of you.

SECTION-C

Question 6: Do as directed: -

4x1=4

- (a) The teacher beat the child. (Change into passive voice)
- (b) What a lovely garden! (Change into assertive sentence)
- (c) The policeman catches thieves. (Change into active voice)
- (d) Shyam is richer than Gopal. (Change into positive degree)

Solution 6:

- (a) The child is beaten by the teacher.
- (b) It is very lovely garden.
- (c) Thieves are caught.
- (d) Gopal is not as rich as Shyam.

Question 7: Fill in the blanks with appropriate form of verbs given in the bracket:

4x1=4

- (i) The bunch of keys.....been lost.(has,have)
- (ii) Measlesa serious disease.(is,are)
- (iii) Smoking and drinking.....injurious to health.(are,is)
- (iv) The rest of the book.....published.(was,were)

Solution 7:

- (i) has
- (ii) is.
- (iii) is
- (iv) was.

Question 8: Fill in the blanks with suitable preposition given in the bracket: 4x1=4

- (a) I am waiting.....my father. (For, from)
- (b) Ram goes to school.....bus (by, from)
- (c) The police ran.....the chief. (after, to)
- (d) He dealshis friend about the proposal. (in, with)

Solution 8:

- (a) for
- (b) by.
- (c) after
- (d) with

Question 9: Change the following sentences into indirect into form of speech. 3x1=3

- (a) He said to me, "Please wait for me at the station".
- (b) The boys said to the teachers, "please teach us English grammar".
- (c) Sonal said to the husband, "Please put the shawl on me".

Solution 9:

- (a) He requested to me to wait for him at the station.
- (b) The boys requested to the teachers to teach the E-grammar.
- (c) Sonal requested her to husband put the shawl on her.

Question 10: Translate any five of the following into English. 5x1=5

- (i) तुम मेरी सहायता कैसे करोगे ?
- (ii) क्या इस बगीचे में फूल हैं?
- (iii) गीता प्रतिदिन सुबह चार बजे उठती है।
- (iv) सब लड़के घर चले गये।
- (v) आज बहुत गर्मी है।
- (vi) रीता साईकिल चलाना सिख रही है।
- (vii) वह ट्रेन से मुंबई गया।
- (viii) उसका जन्म एक गरीब परिवार में हुआ था।

Solution 10:

- (i) How will you help me?
- (ii) Is there flowers in this garden?
- (iii) Geeta gets up daily early in the morning at 4 'o' clock.
- (iv) All boys went to house.
- (v) It is very hot day today.
- (vi) Reeta is learning how to ride a bicycle
- (vii) He went to Mumbai by train.
- (viii) He was born in a poor family.

SECTION-D

Question 11: Read the extract carefully and answer the following questions: 5x1=5

During the course of my indisposition, he would sit near my head on my pillow and gently stroke my forehead and hair, and his moving away was like the going away of a nurse or attendant!

When I used to work during summers afternoons, Gillu would abstain

From going outside or sitting in his swing. To keep himself close to me and so to tackle the summer heat, he had discovered a totally new method. He would lie prostrate on the 'Surahi' kept near me and thus remain both close to me as well as be cool!

Questions

- (i) Who is the author of this passage?
- (ii) How did Gillu nurse the narrator during the in disposition?
- (iii) What would Gillu do during summer afternoons when the narrator used to work?
- (iv) How would he keep himself close to the narrator and tackle the summer heat?
- (v) Which word in passage means 'lying on the ground'?

Solution 11:

- (i) Mahadevi Verma is the author of this passage.
- (ii) During the narrator's indisposition, Gillu would nurse her by sitting near her head on her pillow and gently stroking her forehead and hair.
- (iii) When the narrator used to work during summer afternoons, Gill would neither go outside to sit in his swing.
- (iv) He would keep himself close to the narrator and take the summer heat by lying prostrate on the 'surahi' kept near her
- (v) The word prostrate' means 'lying on the ground'

Question 12: Read the extract carefully and answers the following questions- 5x1=5

There you have a mind which has trained itself to work in high gear- Though as a matter of fact it can work in other gears just as well. But my point is that most of my fellow-patients in the cinema do think fast enough to Keep up comfortably with rapid changes of scene and action. They think much faster than people did thirty years ago: possible because those who do Not think fast in the high street now a days may not get another chance in this World to think at all.

Questions

- (i) Name the essay and its author.
- (ii) What does the writer say about the mind of a modern man?
- (iii) Why do people in the cinema think fast?
- (iv) What may happen to the people who do not think fast now a days?
- (v) Find a word in the passage which means 'fast'.

Solution 12:

- (i) The essay is 'what is wrong with Indian films' and its author is Satyajit Ray.
- (ii) He writer says that the mind of a modern man has trained itself work in high gear.
- (iii) The people in the cinema think fast to keep up with rapid changes of see he and action.
- (iv) The people do not think fast now a days may not get another chance in the world to thick at all.
- (v) The word 'rapid' means 'fast'.

Question 13: Answer any one of the following in about 80 words-

1x6=6

- (i) What did the narrator feel at the death of Gillu Describe her feelings in your words.
- (ii) Do you think that Indian films have certain basic weaknesses? Give reasons for your answer.
- (iii) What is the capacity of readjustment exhibited in Indian society? It is the strength or the weakness of Indian society?

Solution 13:

(i) Gillu spent two years with the story writer. She used to love Gillu from the core of her heart and his loss made the writer sad. She was very much perturbed by his death because he was so much closely associated with her. Whenever she was present in her room he would sit hear her feet for hours and watch her activities with his eyes. But after two years of his association with her, he took his last breath.

She was highly aggrieved by his death. It shocked her much. She felt that when the sonjuhi creeper would start flowering in spring season, Gillu will be seen on the creeper in the form of yellow Juhi flower. Gillu was buried under the sonjuhi creeper because he loved the creeper most. It is her belief that someday she will find him flowering and blossoming in the outward form of a tiny yellow juhi flower. The narrator describes such a loss in a poetic manner. He also describes the death of Gillu as a widened existence.

(ii) Indian films have certain basic weaknesses. Most of the films produced now are often exact copies of Hollywood or other foreign language films. Tunes of many Hindi songs too are similar lifted from Hollywood films. The plot of 'Parichay' is copied from the English movie 'The Sound of Music'. Also, some parts of 'Koimil Gaya' is quite like that of the English film 'ET'.

(iii) This capacity is the Indian tendency to tolerate and make changes according to other religions and cultures. Indians have always believed in living life in their own way and allowing others to live in their own way. This is the source of strength for Indian society and has united the Indians though they belong to so many different groups.

Question 14: Answer the following Question in about 30 words each-

2x2=4

- (i) What is ecology? It is essential to preserve it.
- (ii) What does Satyajit Ray say about the lack of maturity in Indian film?

Solution 14:

(i) Ecology means the natural relationship between living things and essential to preserve it because the growth and survival of plants and living creature depends on it. Ecological imbalance has created serious problems in the modern age.

(ii) Satyajit Ray says that the lack of maturity in Indian films can be attributed to several factors. The producers blame the masses for the bad quality of Indian films. The technicians blame the tools and the directors blame the existing conditions for the lack of maturity in Indian film.

Question 15: Read carefully the stanza given below and answers the questions that follow :
4x1=4

God made the country. And manmade the town
What wonder then, that health and virtue, gifts
That can alone make sweet the bitter draught
That life holds out to all, should most abound and least be threatened in the fields and groves?

Question:

- (i) Who wrote these lines?
- (ii) Who made the town?
- (iii) What do we get in the countryside?
- (iv) Who made the countryside?

Solution 15:

- (i) Here lines has been written by William Cowper.
- (ii) Man made the town.
- (iii) We get health and virtue in the countryside.
- (iv) God made the countryside.

Question 16: Answer any two of the following questions in about 40 words- 2x3=6

- (i) What does the Martha do in the hazel glen?
- (ii) Why the tree was called unkind?
- (iii) How does the want to die?

Solution 16:

- (i) Martha usually tells her stories in the Hazel glean. She made the atmosphere of hazel glen in fully alive and lively.
- (ii) The tree was called unkind because it gave the rich man the eighth pot which was half-full. He lost his life in trying to fill it with gold.
- (iii) The poet wants to die quality. He wishes that nobody should express sorrow after his death. He doesn't want a tombstone at the place where he is buried after his death.

Question 17: Answer any one of the following question: 1x6=6

- (i) What did the prisoner written in his note?
- (ii) What is allergy? How can allergic disease be treated?

Solution 17:

- (i) The prisoner had written that he knew he would be free the next-day. Still, he now hated freedom, if, health and all blessings in the though he had not met pebble, he head experienced all earthly life through books. He was now extremely clever. However, he hated books, blessing of the world and wisdom because these were not real. Death would end everything to prove he heated everything he was giving up his right to the two million.

(ii) When the human immune system does not work properly and violently against allergens, the result is an allergy. Allergic disease can be treated by a avoidance of the allergen melergto relieve symptoms and dillergy shots. A person suffering from an allergic Disease must avoid the allergen which causes it. He should take medicine prescribed of the doctors

Question 18: Answer any two of the following question:

- (i) What did the mother advised her to daughter?
- (ii) Who was jabra?
- (iii) What were the two special qualities of Mr. Gassler's shoes?
- (iv) How did the lawyer violate the agreement with the banker?

Solution 18:

- (i) The mother's advice to her daughter that the circle of fulfilment always limited while fulfilment is boundless.
- (ii) Jabra was the pet dog of Halku, a poor tenant farmer. He always obeyed and served him. He wants to fill with halku even at cold night and graded his crops.
- (iii) The two special qualities of Mr. Gasser's shoe were. They lasted long and filtered perfectly.
- (iv) The lawyer violated the agreement from the banker by escaping from his cell five minute before the stipulated term. He went to the gate and disappeared. He did not claim two million roubles from the lawyer because he heated materials things.