2. Read the passage carefully and answer the question below in your words.

The great sage once had a group of disciples. They were all very bright and eager students and the sage had all the reasons to be proud of them. One day the sage realized that he had imparted enough knowledge to his disciples. Now they were all very learned. There was only one thing the sage had not taught them, and that was the special verse that could bring the dead back to life. The sage knew that such knowledge was too wonderful and could prove to be a dangerous thing in the hands of someone who was not very wise. The sage pondered over this for a long time. But he also knew that if he did not pass on this secret verse, it could die with him. So, at last he called his cleverest disciple aside and said “I am going to teach you very special verse. If you chant this never misuse or test you powers vainly.”

Fair pledges of a fruitful tree,
Why do ye fall so fast
Your date is not so past,
But you may stay here awhile
To blush and gently smile.
What, were ye born to be
An hour or half's delight
And so bid good night?
T'was pity Nature brought ye forth
Merely to show your worth
And lost you quite.

10. You are Navya, write a speech in about 60-70 words to be delivered on the occasion of 'Teacher's Day'.

Teacher's Day

A very good morning to one and all present. I Navya feel honoured to be standing here and delivering a speech on a very special occasion that is teacher's day. This day is celebrated every year in India on the 5th of September to mark honour to our second president Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. The students and teachers celebrate this day together to show their appreciation, respect and love for them.

Various events and functions happen in school to celebrate this occasion. It's a day off from busy school schedule and gives us a chance to interact with our teachers closely.

This day is going to be special for those who will bid farewell and pass out from school, therefore we should keep the learning and memory intact.

Thank you and have a wonderful day ahead. .
